

Einstein's Alley

A 501 (4) Not For Profit Corporation

Join the Website Initiative

Einstein's Alley is a catalyst for collaboration and communication focusing on New Jersey as a hub of innovation; a great place to live and work; and a great place to do business. Einstein's Alley succeeds by fostering a community of entrepreneurial business leaders, technologists, research institutions and students, working together to create and deliver value through innovation, business development, and scientific know-how.

Einstein's Alley Promotes and Supports:

- New Technology Based Companies
- Angel and Venture Resources
- Stimulation of Innovation
- Entrepreneurship
- Tools To Assist Start Ups
- New Investment In The Region
- Local, Regional, National Reputation
- Growth and Creation of New Jobs
- Economic Development
- State Economic Initiatives

The Einstein's Alley website creates a virtual community of business leaders, technology leaders, organizations, companies and individual contributors. Our web initiative is the infrastructure for coordinating information on New Jersey's vast resources with support for one stop to share ideas, collaborate, and perform knowledge work using the web as a tool.

Our web environment provides: business news and opinions; upcoming events through our calendar; business directory with information on multiple businesses; and services to link entrepreneurs, businesses, municipalities, colleges and universities and the State.

What You Get By Joining the Website

Your organization will be highly visible to others in this on-line entrepreneurial community. And you can search and view information of interest: Directories of Services; Articles and Columns; News Feeds; Calendars of Events; Discussion Areas; Polls and Surveys.
